OVERVIEW

Austin K. F. Benner is a litigator focusing on large-scale construction disputes and international law, representing clients in complex disputes and regulatory challenges. With a strong background in trial advocacy, including multiple jury trial victories, he is skilled at navigating high-stakes litigation and advancing strategic solutions in contentious and evolving legal landscapes.

Austin brings a sharp, forward-thinking approach to resolving disputes and structuring strategies that align with the realities of today's business environment. Whether in litigation, negotiation, or proactive planning, he delivers tailored counsel to navigate uncertainty and protect his clients' interests.
