OVERVIEW

Alba Hinojosa Planell brings more than seven years of experience as a corporate and transactional attorney in Spain. Before transitioning into litigation, she advised multinational clients on complex corporate matters, including mergers and acquisitions, regulatory compliance, and commercial contract negotiation. Her experience spans a variety of industries such as renewable energy, chemicals, and retail, giving her a strong foundation in navigating legal risk and strategic business issues.

Now based in the U.S., Alba brings a global perspective and detail-oriented approach to her work in toxic torts. Her background in managing high-stakes transactions and cross-border projects informs her ability to analyze legal complexities and support litigation teams in delivering practical solutions.
