OVERVIEW

Aleeza Mian is an Associate in the GRSM Chicago office. She is a member of the Commercial Litigation practice group representing clients in complex litigation matters, including contractual disputes. She has extensive litigation experience in all facets of civil litigation from pleadings through settlement.

Prior to joining GRSM, Aleeza worked at a prominent Chicago-based litigation defense firm where she gained experience in municipal liability and general negligence litigation in state and federal court. During this time, she represented municipalities, police officers, medical professionals, and public transit providers. Throughout law school, she also worked as a law clerk at a leading Chicago-based plaintiff's firm where she gained valuable experience in personal injury matters.

While in law school, Aleeza was a Board Member on the Moot Court Honors Council, President of the South Asian Law Student Association, Media Director for Health Law Society, Member of the Student Advisory Board, and Teaching Assistant for Legal Writing. She also received the award of Top Five Best Respondent's Brief in the Fred E. Herzog Competition.
