OVERVIEW

Andrea Williams is a Partner at GRSM. Her practice focuses on real estate transactions, appeals, and insurance coverage litigation.

She has been practicing law in San Diego for over 15 years representing a wide range of client interests. She has experience handling appellate matters before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and the California Courts of Appeal.

Andrea's experience includes litigation in both state and federal courts in matters involving member and provider insurance coverage and disability claims. In addition, she represents annuity contract obligors and issuers in structured settlement transactions.

Prior to working at GRSM, she worked for a non-profit law firm protecting the interests of indigent clients in family law matters.
