OVERVIEW

AsheLee Singleton specializes in complex commercial litigation and insurance law. She represents insurers and their clients in a variety of litigation matters, including personal injury, construction defects, property damage and professional liability. Additionally, AsheLee has extensive experience managing high-stakes disputes, including surety and class actions. With a strong foundation in legal strategy and a commitment to client advocacy, AsheLee is dedicated to achieving successful outcomes for her clients.

While in law school, she was a member of Tulane Law's Alternative Dispute Resolution Moot Court team, the Civil Rights and Federal Practice Clinic, and the Black Law Student Association. In addition, she placed first in Tulane Law's intra-school ADR Moot Court competition and was named "Best Negotiator" in the Nelson Mandela International Negotiations National Competition.

As a law student, AsheLee was a legal intern for the Honorable Piper D. Griffin of Orleans Parish Civil District Court.
