OVERVIEW

Berkley's practice focuses on intellectual property litigation and commercial litigation. She represents clients in various types of conflicts, including contract breaches, shareholder disputes, and intellectual property disagreements. Berkley is also a part of the firm's White Collar Defense group.

Prior to joining GRSM, Berkley assisted individuals and entities in private practice. In this capacity, she litigated several bench trials and contested hearings, served as second chair on jury trials, and honed her briefing and appellate advocacy skills.
