OVERVIEW

Brianne E. Walker is a Partner in the St. Louis office of GRSM and is a member of the Environmental & Toxic Tort practice group. She focuses her practice on civil litigation concerning toxic tort and environmental law, employment law, product liability, and trucking and automotive liability.

After graduating from Illinois State University, Brianne attended and graduated from Washington University School of Law in St. Louis. At her prior firm, she worked on a number of cases in general civil litigation and commercial litigation in the areas of premises liability, product liability, trucking and automotive law, appellate law, and employment law.

Brianne has comprehensive experience handling all stages of litigation including drafting pleadings, discovery documents, motions, and appellate briefs. She is an attorney who cares about advocating for her clients and has done so by conducting and defending depositions, arguing motions, and engaging in settlement negotiations. She defends clients in a number of state and federal courts.

In her free time, she plays in a sand volleyball league and spends time enjoying the outdoors with her family and friends.
