OVERVIEW

Chelsea L. Musto focuses her practice on insurance defense and coverage matters in the areas of civil litigation, personal injury and wrongful death defense, long-term care defense litigation, and medical malpractice.

Prior to joining GRSM, Chelsea was an Associate with another large insurance defense firm, handling a high-volume caseload of nursing home and assisted living facility claims and managing negotiations with adjusters and counsel. She defended claims ranging from negligence and violations of nursing home and assisted living facility residents' rights to allegations of elder abuse and exploitation, and wrongful death.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Assisted team with achievement of total defense verdict at trial for nursing home case, including infectious disease and negligent wound care allegations, in Florida in 2023.
- Achieved summary judgment on behalf of client by demonstrating that the client was not the licensee of the assisted living facility during the relevant time period.
