

Daniel J. Quon

SENIOR COUNSEL

San Diego

619.696.6700

dquon@grsm.com

RELATED SERVICES

- Environmental & Toxic Tort

OFFICES

- San Diego

OVERVIEW

Daniel (“Dan”) Quon is Senior Counsel in GRSM’s Environmental & Toxic Tort practice group. He advocates on behalf of companies in defense of products liability, premises liability, environmental, and toxic tort claims.

After law school, Dan clerked for a state appellate judge before joining the securities litigation practice of an international law firm. He moved on to practice in-house at a global investment bank and, more recently, a local technology company. Dan's dedication to his work and the law comes from his belief in justice, his commitment to excellence, and his competitive nature.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Fashioned and implemented a large company’s competitive intelligence policies and procedures
- Successfully lobbied city officials to limit business restrictions that were detrimental to a client
- Incorporated and set up a client’s successful startup corporation

CREDENTIALS

Admissions

- California
- New York

Memberships

- Los Angeles County Bar Association
- New York State Bar Association

Community Involvement

- Volunteer attorney for the California Innocence Project

Education

- J.D., Fordham University School of Law
- M.A., magna cum laude, Fordham University School of Law
- B.A., Economics and Political Science, University of California, Los Angeles