OVERVIEW

Emily Christensen primarily focuses her practice on insurance coverage and professional liability defense.

Prior to joining GRSM, Emily worked at a large insurance carrier where she handled a variety of insurance claims in the professional liability sphere, particularly in the areas of public directors and officers liability and financial institution errors and omissions. She also served as a law clerk during her time in law school, where she gained valuable experience in legal research and document drafting.

Emily graduated from Loyola University Chicago School of Law in May of 2024. While at Loyola, she served as Senior Editor and Editor of two journals, the Public Interest Law Journal and the Consumer Law Review.
