OVERVIEW

Edward L. Kelly is an Associate in the Pittsburgh office of GRSM and is a member of the Healthcare practice group. His practice focuses on the representation and counseling of hospitals, physicians, nurses, long-term care facilities, and other healthcare entities and providers in a variety of matters, including medical malpractice litigation.

Prior to joining GRSM, Edward worked at local and regional firms in the Pittsburgh area, representing clients in a diverse collection of practice areas, including medical malpractice defense, estate administration and litigation, and commercial litigation. This experience provides value to our healthcare clients, as he is able to address and counsel them on related issues that may arise within the course of their malpractice litigation.
