OVERVIEW

Farah A. Ballout is Senior Counsel in the Irvine office of GRSM. She is a member of the Environmental & Toxic Tort practice group.

Farah represents clients in a wide range of industries in environmental and toxic tort litigation, including complex product liability such as contractors, distributors, manufacturers, premises owners, and public entities. She has served as second chair on multiple jury trials in Northern and Southern California in complex asbestos and talc litigation. She also served as lead bench trial counsel in a property dispute, where she obtained a judgment for the defense.

Farah's wide range of litigation skills include factual investigation, drafting and arguing critical motions and pleadings, fact witness and expert depositions, retaining and supervising the work of experts, preparing and defending clients and other witnesses for depositions and trial examinations, and preparing cases for trial.
