OVERVIEW

Grace L. Gadow is an Associate in the GRSM Jackson office. Grace's practice focuses on commercial litigation, insurance defense, and premises liability. Prior to joining GRSM, Grace worked at a national civil litigation firm, representing individual and corporate clients from pre-litigation through resolution in state and federal courts across the country.

Grace has successfully represented numerous individuals, municipalities, and companies in a wide range of complex litigation matters. Her experience includes complex disputes in insurance litigation, breach of fiduciary duty, breach of contract, premises liability, class actions, and multi-district litigation.
