OVERVIEW

Gregory Rousso is an Associate in the San Francisco office of GRSM and is a member of the Healthcare practice group. He focuses his practice on representing a wide variety of medical providers against claims of medical malpractice and wrongful death. Gregory also frequently handles constitutional law claims against care providers in correctional facilities, as well as intellectual property matters. He handles cases in both state and federal court.

Gregory completed his J.D. at Golden Gate University School of Law. While attending law school, he captained the Mock Trial Team and was a teaching fellow for the Litigation Center.
