OVERVIEW

Imran Vakil is a California attorney with over 17 years of experience in intellectual property (IP) litigation and prosecution, business and civil litigation, entity formations, recapitalization, acquisitions, and other commercial transactions. He served as lead counsel in hundreds of lawsuits and managed thousands of matters outside of court.

Imran thrives on business development, strategy, negotiating, and making deals. He aims to help mid-to-large companies stay ahead of the curve by aligning legal strategy with business goals and focusing on conflicts that are necessary or strategically valuable. He strives to advise clients with a purposeful approach, grounded in thoughtful planning and clear risk-reward analysis, all as the best means toward achieving long-term success.
