OVERVIEW

Jennifer Williams has a wealth of experience in civil, criminal, and appellate litigation, as well as municipal and employment law. With a distinguished track record, Jennifer has successfully tried over 80 cases before judges and juries in various state, federal, and international courts.

Her experience extends beyond the courtroom; as a criminology instructor at Marquette University, Jennifer shares her extensive knowledge with future legal professionals. She is dedicated to community impact, having trained and mentored law enforcement and partners in combating human trafficking, addressing sex crimes, and enhancing law enforcement best practices.

A multilingual professional fluent in Spanish and French, Jennifer's skills bridge both legal and cultural divides, positioning her as a valuable resource for clients and colleagues alike.
