OVERVIEW

Lindsey M. Romano is Co-Managing Partner of the firm's San Francisco and Walnut Creek offices and serves as Co-Chair of the firm's Healthcare practice group.

Lindsey's healthcare practice focuses on representing nationwide industry healthcare clients who serve the most vulnerable patient populations. Lindsey's expertise is defending her clients in high exposure, complex claims. She has defended claims ranging from allegations of wrongful death, sexual and physical abuse, and catastrophic injury.

Lindsey's practice areas include defending senior living providers such as skilled nursing facilities, assisted living, and independent living facilities, behavioral health providers, acute care facilities, Lindsey also represents individual licensed providers such as surgeons, doctors, psychologists, licensed social workers, family and marriage counselors, dentists, nurses, and correctional care providers.

Before relocating to the Bay Area, Lindsey was a partner in both the Tampa and Pensacola offices of her prior law firm. Lindsey actively litigates major cases in California, Florida, and throughout the United States in both federal and state courts.

In addition to litigating a claim from its onset through trial, Lindsey provides full range of services to her clients. Such services include counseling, in-service training, healthcare board actions, regulatory or governmental investigatory issues, as well as public relations and media strategy to control the narrative of a case in the public sphere.

Lindsey's philosophy combines her passion for providing a creative, well rounded, and humanistic approach to sensitive claims and her talent for value-driven results. Her proven outcomes and tactical strategies make her a true business partner and fierce advocate for her clients. Whether the goal of a case is to resolve the claim or trying the case to a defense verdict, Lindsey will collaborate with you on developing and executing a plan to effectively and efficiently litigate the claim to resolution.

When she is not busy delivering exceptional results to her clients and reviewing medical records, she enjoys quality time with her husband and two kids, watching football, and going on outdoor adventures.
