OVERVIEW

Lisa G. Schlittner is Senior Counsel in the San Francisco office of GRSM and is a member of the Construction practice group. She has an extensive background in construction litigation and has represented virtually all categories of participants in the design, development and construction process. Most recently she has focused on the representation of residential and commercial builders in complex litigation, including real estate transactions, pre-litigation dispute resolution processes, construction defect actions and personal injury claims. She has tried multiple cases to verdict and has extensive appellate experience.
