OVERVIEW

Levy Wash is an experienced litigator whose practice focuses on commercial general liability defense, business litigation, product liability claims, and employment litigation. He provides comprehensive representation to clients at every stage of litigation and is committed to delivering effective legal solutions tailored to meet his clients' unique business needs and objectives.

Prior to joining GRSM, Levy's practice focused on insurance defense, premises liability, worker's compensation, professional liability, and insurance coverage claims. Levy also worked for a Fortune 100 insurance company where he handled cases involving automobile accidents, slip and falls, dog bite cases, and other types of personal casualty matters. Additionally, Levy has represented municipal entities in cases involving vehicular accidents, and other claims.
