OVERVIEW

Madeline Cartwright is an Associate in the Dallas office and a member of the Commercial Litigation and Employment Law practice groups. At GRSM, Madeline's practice includes defending corporations in a wide variety of litigation matters for clients at both the state and federal level, including complex commercial disputes and employment disputes.

Madeline graduated from SMU Dedman School of Law, where she was honored as a Dean's Scholarship Recipient. Throughout law school, Madeline led various organizations, serving as the Editor-in-Chief of SMU Science and Technology Law Review and Vice President of Corporate Law Association. Additionally, Madeline was recognized as a Rowling Scholar by the Robert B. Rowling Center for Business Law & Leadership for her active involvement in corporate law. During her third year of law school, Madeline gained invaluable practical experience as an in-house Legal Extern with PepsiCo, the largest food and beverage company in North America, where she focused on employment law matters.
