OVERVIEW

Maureen M. Carr is an associate in the Philadelphia office of GRSM, and is a member of the Insurance, Professional Liability, Appellate, and Employment Law practice groups.

Prior to joining GRSM, Maureen stepped away from the law for an extended period to raise her two children. She then returned to practice in Philadelphia. Maureen served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Boyce F. Martin, Jr. on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, served as the Senior Notes Editor for the Georgetown Journal of Legal Ethics, was a recipient of the St. Thomas More Award for excellence in Legal Ethics, and served as a research assistant to Robert F. Drinan, S.J. in the areas of legal ethics, constitutional law, and human rights.
