OVERVIEW

Max H. Trembitsky is Senior Counsel in the New York office of GRSM and is a member of the Product & General Liability practice group. Max specializes in product liability defense with a focus on defending domestic and foreign manufacturers and distributors in civil litigation throughout the United States and internationally.

Max graduated from City University of New York at Bernard M. Baruch College, cum laude. Thereafter, he attended Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law where he received his Juris Doctorate. During law school, Max was as a member of the Criminal Appeals Clinic and argued a felony appeal before the New York State Appellate Division First Department. He was also a part of the Legal Aid Society's Criminal Appeals Bureau where he successfully petitioned the Appellate Division to reverse the lower Courts' decisions.

Max has extensive experience defending complex, high exposure medical malpractice cases, and was previously a part of a litigation team that defended a major U.S. auto manufacturer in asbestos litigation.
