OVERVIEW

Megan Bosak is a skilled litigator with an impressive record of success in complex, high-value, and multi-party litigation. She is licensed to practice in Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky, where she counsels clients in matters related to toxic tort, asbestos, long-term care issues, and medical malpractice.

Megan's drive to get to the bottom of challenging case issues, combined with her knowledge of the law, counsel, and political climates, makes her insight and advice essential to achieving favorable results. Her clients appreciate her accessibility and consistent and relevant communication throughout a case's lifecycle. She has experience in all stages of litigation, including case strategy and development, depositions, expert witness discovery, motion practice, negotiations, trial, and appeals.

Outside the office, Megan enjoys spending time with her husband and two daughters.
