OVERVIEW

Matthew Gendreau represents architects, engineers and construction firms in a wide variety of litigation matters, including cases in state and U.S. Federal Court.

Matthew has a wide variety of litigation experience over the past twenty years. Prior to joining GRSM, Matthew worked at a high-profile construction firm in Boston, representing clients in high-value construction disputes throughout Massachusetts. He has years of experience in insurance defense litigation, trying and winning dozens of trials in personal injury, premises liability and complex litigation matters. Matthew started his career doing plaintiff's personal injury work, and also has experience in criminal law, family law, and immigration cases.
