OVERVIEW

Michael C. Grenier is an Associate in the Boston office of GRSM. He is a member of the Construction and Commercial Litigation practice groups. Mike's practice focuses on the defense of complex general liability, premises liability, personal injury and wrongful death, construction, insurance, coverage, liquor liability, property damage and recreational liability cases. Mike has represented numerous large and small corporations, small businesses, municipalities, restaurants, hotels, construction and excavation companies, design professionals, and global manufacturing companies. Mike routinely defends his clients in all stages of civil litigation from the inception of the pre-suit claim through trial, and has also advocated favorably for his clients in mediations and arbitrations.

Prior to joining GRSM, Mike worked at a mid-sized regional law firm in Massachusetts where in addition to his practice served as outside national litigation counsel for an international manufacturing company by defending and managing its product and successor liability matters and arbitrations across the country. He also served as local counsel in Massachusetts for a national retail company defending its premises liability matters.
