OVERVIEW

Myles Lanzone is Senior Counsel in the San Francisco office of GRSM and is a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation practice group. He focuses on commercial litigation in trial and appellate courts, with an emphasis on claims involving financial services, product liability, consumer fraud, breach of contract and unfair business practices. Previously, Myles worked at several San Francisco and Oakland-based firms, where his litigation practice areas included the defense of general liability, construction, government contracts, employment matters, financial services, and appellate law. He has a comprehensive background in all aspects of the civil litigation process and has successfully drafted and argued dozens of motions and briefs.

Before entering private practice, Myles clerked for the California Supreme Court and Los Angeles County Superior Court.
