OVERVIEW

Olivia Matte is an Associate attorney in the Charleston office of GRSM and is a member of the Construction, Class Action, Commercial Litigation, Insurance, Professional Liability, and Immigration & Naturalization practice groups. She primarily focuses on construction defect matters and has comprehensive experience representing local contractors in all aspects of litigation.

Olivia previously practiced at a boutique litigation firm in Charleston where she handled construction defect, personal injury, and premises liability matters. She also worked at a local immigration firm where she focused on family and humanitarian-based immigration. These experiences strengthened her litigation skills and catapulted her into her career at GRSM.
