

Omar Al-Hendy

ASSOCIATE

Chicago

312.565.1400

oal-hendy@grsm.com

RELATED SERVICES

- Environmental & Toxic Tort
- Asbestos & Talc

OFFICES

- Chicago

OVERVIEW

Omar Al-Hendy is an Associate in the Chicago office of GRSM. He focuses his practice on the defense of manufacturers and suppliers in a variety of product liability, toxic tort, and environmental litigation matters involving exposure to asbestos and various chemicals.

Prior to joining GRSM, Omar worked as an associate at a nationwide civil defense firm, in which he developed his skills and knowledge both in tort law as well as specific product liability issues. Omar has been involved in the civil litigation process from inception to conclusion, taking a case throughout the entirety of the discovery process and preparing it for trial if necessary.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

Representative Experience

- Obtained findings of guilt in numerous Class X & Class 1 felony trials throughout the Juvenile Courthouses in Cook County, the second largest county in America.
- Appeared on behalf of manufacturers, suppliers, and distributors in hundreds of depositions involving potential Product Liability based on allegations of asbestos exposure

PUBLICATIONS

- Author, Smokable Hemp in North Carolina: Gone for Good? An Analysis of the Constitutionality of the North Carolina Farm Act of 2019, Wake Forest Journal of Law & Policy, Spring 2020

CREDENTIALS

Admissions

- Illinois
- Indiana
- U.S. District Court, Southern District of Indiana

Education

- J.D., Wake Forest University School of Law, 2021
 - Dean Suzanne Reynolds Award – Employment Discrimination
 - James G. White Memorial Scholarship & Law Alumni Council Annual Scholarship
- B.A., cum laude, Political Science & Economics, University of Pittsburgh, 2017