OVERVIEW

Paige A. Wagner focuses her practice on commercial litigation. Prior to joining GRSM, Paige most recently worked with a small appellate law firm and is skilled in drafting appellate briefs for a variety of civil matters.

Paige previously worked as an associate for a state-wide Florida law firm, with experience representing corporations and financial institutions in a broad range of litigation matters including bankruptcy and debt workouts, contractual disputes and commercial real estate matters. She also served as an associate general counsel for a large health insurance company where she assisted in the management of all aspects of litigation and pre-litigation planning and strategy.
