OVERVIEW

Rachel M. Maldonado is a Partner in the Medicare Compliance practice group, concentrating on Medicare compliance issues that arise in workers' compensation and general liability settlements.

Prior to joining the firm, Rachel's practice involved Social Security disability and workers' compensation litigation as an Attorney Representative at a clinical and claims management services company and as an Associate at a solo practice. A registered attorney with the United States Social Security Administration, she has vast knowledge of and experience with Medicare, Medicare Set Asides, and workers' compensation law in Pennsylvania.

She received a J.D. from Duquesne University in 2009, where she held a Public Interest Association Law fellowship assisting low-income clients with custody matters. Additionally, she received the CALI award in Taxation. She received a B.S. in Psychology, cum laude, from the University of Pittsburgh Honors College in 2006.
