

Sabrina M. Kawana

ASSOCIATE

Honolulu

808.441.1830

skawana@grsm.com

RELATED SERVICES

- Construction
- Cannabis, Hemp & CBD
- Commercial Litigation
- Consumer Financial Services

OFFICES

- Honolulu

OVERVIEW

Sabrina M. Kawana is an Associate in the firm's Honolulu office. She is a member of the Construction and Commercial Litigation practice groups.

Before joining GRSM, Sabrina was a Litigation Associate at a civil law firm in Honolulu. She clerked for the Intermediate Court of Appeals and the Honorable Jeannette H. Castagnetti at the First Circuit Court of Hawaii.

Sabrina graduated from Willamette University in Salem, Oregon with a Bachelor of Arts degree in politics and minor in English. After returning home to Oahu, Sabrina attended the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawaii 'i at Mānoa, where she received CALI awards for the highest grade in Civil Rights and Construction Litigation courses. During law school, Sabrina served in leadership positions such as the co-managing editor for the University of Hawaii Law Review, captain of the Manfred Lachs Moot Court Competition team, and officer of the Advocates for Public Interest Law

CREDENTIALS

Admissions

- Hawaii

Memberships

- Hawaii State Bar Association
- Federal Bar Association
- American Bar Association
- American Judicature Society

Community Involvement

- Young Lawyers Division, Hawaii State Bar Association
- Regional Alumni Chapter President, Willamette University

Education

- J.D., William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, 2017
- B.A., Willamette University, 2011

Honors

- Super Lawyers Rising Star® distinction in Construction Litigation (2023-2024)