OVERVIEW

Sarah Carlson Lambert is Senior Counsel in the San Francisco office of GRSM and is a member of the Product & General Liability practice group. Sarah focuses her practice on commercial and consumer breach of warranty cases for automotive manufacturers. Sarah's practice includes matters involving alleged violations under the Song Beverly Consumer Warranty Act, California Consumer Legal Remedies Act, and consumer fraud-based claims.

Before joining GRSM, Sarah practiced family law, representing divorce and family law clients in both simple and complex, contested dissolution of marriage, legal separation and its proceedings.

While in law school, Sarah was actively involved with the Women's Caucus, a student organization for the discussion of social and political issues concerning women and the law.
