OVERVIEW

Shannon Voll Poliziani is a Partner in the Pittsburgh office of GRSM and is a member of the Healthcare and Professional Liability practice groups. Shannon concentrates her practice in the defense of professional liability and medical malpractice claims, representing physicians, hospitals and other healthcare personnel.

Shannon started her legal career as an Assistant District Attorney in Houston, Texas, gaining extensive trial experience. She then served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Houston Division of the Southern District of Texas, serving in both the Violent Crime and Fraud Divisions. While in the Fraud Division, Shannon prosecuted bank fraud, insurance fraud and mortgage fraud before concentrating her practice in healthcare fraud. Working directly with Program Safeguard Contractors, Shannon gained valuable insight into Medicare and Medicaid regulations, pharmaceutical drug diversion, the False Claims Act and anti-kickback regulations. She is familiar with the issues faced by the medical profession with regard to billing, coding, claims forms, fraud and abuse, and compliance matters.

Over the course of her career, Shannon has represented a variety of healthcare entities and professionals, including physicians, hospitals, nursing homes, psychologists, psychiatrists and chiropractors. Outside of healthcare litigation, Shannon has a broad background that includes white collar criminal defense and defending personal injury lawsuits.

Shannon obtained her law degree from the University of Houston School of Law, where she was an executive justice on the Board of Advocates. She earned her undergraduate degree from Penn State University. She is admitted to practice in the state courts of Pennsylvania and the U.S. District Courts for the Western District of Pennsylvania.
