OVERVIEW

Stephan A. Skiniotes is an Associate in the Chicago office of GRSM, and a member of the Environmental & Toxic Tort and Commercial Litigation practice groups.

Stephan advises his clients through all stages of the litigation process through detailed fact investigation, preparation of complex motions, taking depositions, and evaluating settlements.

Stephan attended law school at night while working full-time at a high volume litigation firm during the day. As a law student, Stephan spent countless hours studying the law whenever there was a spare moment. As a law clerk, he worked on hundreds of product liability matters ranging from preparing motions to assisting with trial preparation.

In his free time, Stephan enjoys honing his skills in the kitchen as an amateur home chef and playing music in a local rock band.
