OVERVIEW

Tessa Wess is a seasoned trial attorney and Partner at Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, where she provides strategic defense counsel to clients across a spectrum of complex litigation matters. Based in the Portland office, she plays a pivotal role in the firm's Commercial Litigation, Product & General Liability, Retail & Hospitality, Trucking & Transportation, and Insurance practice groups.

With a practice spanning Oregon, Washington, and Florida, Tessa has built a reputation for her adept handling of high-stakes cases involving premises liability, product liability, transportation and trucking claims, environmental/toxic torts, commercial disputes, construction defects, professional liability, and catastrophic personal injury and wrongful death claims. Her methodical approach emphasizes risk assessment and procedural precision, consistently yielding favorable outcomes for her clients.

Beyond her litigation practice, Tessa is deeply committed to the legal community. She has served on the Board of Directors for the Oregon Association of Defense Counsel, contributing to the advancement of defense practices and legal education in the region. Her leadership and professional excellence have been recognized by her peers, earning her the distinction of Oregon Super Lawyers Rising Star and Best Lawyers in America.
