OVERVIEW

William J. Martin is an experienced trial lawyer representing businesses in personal injury and wrongful death litigation. His practice focuses on all types of premises liability, product liability, and commercial transportation cases.

Will frequently represents property owners, managers, and business operators in high-stakes litigation arising from third-party criminal acts on their property. His experience includes handling cases dealing with gang violence, kidnappings, sexual assault, and human trafficking.

Will has served as national, local, and trial counsel defending product manufacturers in litigation involving asbestos, diacetyl, talc, consumer cosmetics, industrial equipment components, construction equipment, and automotive products. He has represented clients at trials, hearings, mediations, and depositions in more than 35 states.
