GRSM's 50-state reach and local roots are exemplified by our Atlanta location. Our downtown office, opened in 2011, is home to talented business litigators and transactional lawyers who represent employers, regional and national companies, and entrepreneurs. Areas of practice include employment litigation, catastrophic injury, torts, premises liability, product liability, professional liability, construction litigation, and state and federal consumer protection statutes.

Our Atlanta team also handles a variety of business transactions: public offerings, private offerings, mergers and acquisitions, formation of funds, strategic alliances, film financing, and general corporate matters, among other areas.

GRSM's presence in the Atlanta metropolitan area includes participating in professional and civic groups. We have leaders within the Atlanta Legal Aid Society and law professors at Emory University. Our attorneys include members of the Georgia Association of Black Women Attorneys. We also support the Boys & Girls Clubs of America and various cultural and educational causes in the city and beyond.
