GRSM's Boca Raton office is an expansion of our longstanding presence in Miami and Tampa, extending our reach across South Florida and strengthening service for clients throughout the state. Located in Palm Beach County, the office provides a strategic base for high-stakes litigation, business counseling, and trial support across a broad range of industries.

Our Boca Raton attorneys bring decades of combined experience in complex commercial litigation, probate and guardianship disputes, shareholder and member disputes, defending civil claims alleging sexual abuse, business torts and real estate disputes. The team includes accomplished trial lawyers who have successfully represented international retailers, high net-worth individuals, and real estate developers in Florida and nationally. Their experience spans federal, and state courts and includes matters involving breach of contract, guarantees, fiduciary duties, fraud, defamation, insurance disputes and Arbitration. In addition to their litigation depth, the team offers nuanced insight into risk mitigation, client engagement, and early resolution strategies.

This office builds on the firm's statewide footprint with a team that blends courtroom strength, business acumen, and a client-centered approach. Our Boca Raton attorneys are known for their meticulous preparation, strategic thinking, and responsiveness. The office fosters a collaborative and collegial environment while being situated near key commercial centers and court venues. As part of GRSM's broader Florida platform, the Boca Raton office plays a vital role in supporting regional and national litigation portfolios with scalable, trial-ready resources.
