GRSM's extensive legal bench in the Detroit area covers Michigan and other Midwestern states, which adds significant local depth to our 50 state platform for integrated representation nationwide.

Our emphasis on commercial litigation in Detroit focuses on employment law, commercial and business litigation, financial services, real estate and CMBS litigation, mass tort and product liability, and professional liability defense. Insurance, maritime, trucking and transportation legal services, and franchise law are also practice areas of note. We represent public and private companies, ranging from the Fortune 500 and sports teams to startups and recreational facilities.

Since opening the Detroit office in 2018, our attorneys in Detroit have bolstered the firm's reputation for client service and litigation excellence. Our attorneys have received recognition from Michigan Lawyers Weekly and have served as leaders of the State Bar of Michigan and the Detroit Bar Association. Our pro bono participation includes volunteer assignments with Legal Aid and other causes in support of underserved members of our community.
