Our Salt Lake City office serves as an exemplar of GRSM's full-service, 50 state reach backed by local roots and insights. Our clients include the many companies with workforces and commercial interests in the state, as well as companies seeking to expand operations into this increasingly popular market.

Opened in 2017, our SLC office is home to trial lawyers, litigators, and transactional attorneys. We handle a range of commercial litigation, real estate disputes, professional liability, and employment law defense matters (including discrimination, wage & hour, and ERISA), among other areas. Construction litigation and product and general liability are notable practice areas as well.

GRSM's SLC team closely collaborates with colleagues in Arizona, Colorado, Nevada, Idaho, California, and other Western states. Many of our Utah attorneys are alumni of universities and law schools in the state. We have served in the Utah County Attorney's Office and as teachers in law schools. Collectively, we represent public and private clients at all stages of their lifecycle and in a wide range of high-exposure legal challenges.
