GRSM's presence in the East Bay has evolved from its original office in Oakland in 2014 to its relocation to Walnut Creek in 2024, reflecting our regional growth. Our legacy strength in environmental and toxic tort law continues with attorneys based here. The group is joined by leading professionals in premier practices, including healthcare, medical devices, employment, construction, insurance, intellectual property, maritime, and business transactions.

Our attorneys in Walnut Creek often work in tandem with colleagues in our downtown San Francisco collaboration hub. Our Walnut Creek teams receive recognition from Best Lawyers of America® and Super Lawyers® and are active in professional and community organizations in the East Bay.

In addition to connecting our Bay Area and Central Valley legal professionals, our Walnut Creek office is where many administrative and financial staff are based and support our clients and firm in all 50 states.
