OVERVIEW

Educational institutions face significant challenges today. With our deep understanding of the complex issues impacting K-12 school districts, colleges, and universities across the nation, GRSM provides comprehensive and tailored legal counsel to address the pressing concerns of boards, employees, students and communities. We provide comprehensive representation in all areas impacting educational institutions, including labor and employment, business and board governance, students, and data privacy.

Over the past two years alone, our team has successfully handled hundreds of matters for our education clients in areas including complex litigation, labor and employment disputes, employment policies, student issues and policies, special education, and compliance with state and federal laws. We have a proven track record of delivering favorable outcomes for our clients.
