OVERVIEW

The attorneys at GRSM have a long history of representing leading producers, distributors, and retailers of beer, wine, spirits, and other alcoholic beverages across the United States. The GRSM attorneys have the experience and deep knowledge of the three-tier system of regulation for alcoholic beverages. The alcoholic beverage industry has multi-faceted legal issues requiring insightful legal counsel. The attorneys at GRSM understand these complexities and guide our clients through challenges related to raising capital, commercial contracts, distribution and licensing agreements, mergers and acquisitions, employment, and intellectual property. Our attorneys are highly skilled in specific areas of the law and collaborate nationwide to provide effective legal advice at every stage of business development.

Our Beer, Wine & Spirits group offers legal services in:

- Business formation and licensing

- Capital raises and financing
- Commercial contracts, distribution and licensing agreements
- Business transactions
- Real estate
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Employment
- Intellectual property
